imonsly indorsed as the Democratic nominee for the presidency. Following is the

Resolved, That it be the sense of this convention that Grover Cleveland should be nominated for President in the Chicago national convention, and our delegates to the district convention are hereby instructed to support two candidates for delegates and two alternates who are known to be earnestly and uncompromisingly for Grover Cleveland.

This Was a Gray Convention.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. FRANKFORT, Ind., April 2.- The Democracy of Clinton county nominated the following ticket to-day: Representative, W. A. T. Holmes; prosecutor, Joseph Combs; treasurer, W. P. Marsh; recorder, L. H. Daniels, sheriff, John S. Hutchinson. The delegates to the State convention were instructed to work for a delegation to the Chicago convention that would vote for Isaac P. Gray for President as long as there was any chance for his nomination.

Gray Doesn't Figure.

Special to the Indianapolis Journal. DELPHI, Ind., April 2.- The Democrats of Carroll county elected delegates to State and minor conventions to-day. M. A. Ryan, prosecuting attorney, will head the State delegation from here. Mr. Ryan says he is for Cleveland as long as there is a shadow of a chance for nominating him, and that in this county more than 90 percent, of the Democrats are for Cleveland. He does not consider Gray a factor in the race at all,

Isaac Indorsed at Vevay.

Epecial to the Indianapolis Journal. VEVAY, Ind., April 2.-At the Switzerland county Democratic convention here, to-day, to select delegates to various conventions, the candidacy of Isaac P. Gray for nomination for President was indorsed. During his speech Green Smith said: "I am a free-trader." Mason J. Niblack also made a speech.

A Gray Man Demands Justice. To the Editor of the Indianapolis Journal:

The Sentinel of the 28th demands the withdrawal of ex-Governor Gray's name as a candidate for the presidential comination by the Democracy of Indiana and gives expression to the following sentence: "The ex-Governor has no sincerer friend or well wisher than the Sentinel." The Governor's friends in eastern Indiana have arrived at the conclusion that if the treatment he has received at the hands of the Sentinel is friendship they would be pleased to have its definition of enmity. Dissimilation is the forerunner of periidy, and only sinks the Sentinel deeper in contempt. The Democratic doctrine is "Equal rights to all and special privileges to none." and the Sentinel, as the official organ of the Democratic party of Indiana, should be the last to disregard that great Demo-cratic principle. The Sentinel has been most prodigal with its columns in cuts and display lines, even upon the occasion of township conventions, where there was but a handful of voters, whenever or wherever the name of Mr. Cleveland has been mentioned, while on the other hand it has been extremely miserly with its space when anything was offered it advocating the candidacy of Governor Gray. The articles in favor of Governor Gray are first subjected to a compound compress, as it were, and appear in a three-line notice in some obscure corner of the paper, and the reports of conventions instructing for him are mutilated and interpolated as was done with the one from this county on the 29th of March. Friends of Governor Gray ask nothing but justice, and this they demand at the hands of the Sentinel. The Governor is in no combination with either Mr. Cleveland or Mr. Hill, as has been charged in the columns of the Sentinel to injure him, but his friends are urging his candidacy strictly upon his own merits, well knowing that he is the peer of any man whose name has been mentioned for that high honor, and his friends in Indiana are legion.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The body of Jonathan Hochstetler was found near Somerset, Pa. He was murdered by moonshiners. John Grosh was burned to death near Marietta, Pa., in a fire that resulted from an explosion of gas. The La Grange, Ga., postoffice was en-tered by burglars Friday night and robbed of $1,800 in stamps and registered mail. Senator Finn, of the Iowa Legislature, will prosecute twenty newspaper men for libel. One editor who called Finn the "greatest liar in the Legislature," has been Jefferson D. Rich and Miss Eva Heaton, leading members of the "Police Patrol" theatrical company, were married in St.

Paul, Minn., Friday. John Baker, an ex-alderman of Lancaster, Pa., died last evening from blood poisoning resulting from the scratch of a pet cat received two weeks ago. George Love, alias J. W. Westlake, one of the most skillful counterfeiters in the country, is under arrest in Montana. His specialty is raising five and ten-dollar bills to twenty. The two hundred men employed in the axle department of Carnegie's Twentyninth-street Pittsburg mill, as blacksmiths, struck yesterday against a 10 per cent. reduction in wages. Charles A. Wright, convicted at Eliza-bethtown, N. Y., of murder in the first de-gree in killing Mrs. Feldella Layter, has been sentenced to be electrocuted in the week commencing May 6. Asa P. Potter, ex-President of the Maverick National Bank, was before Judge Nelson in the United States Circuit Court at Boston, yesterday, and pleaded not guilty to each of the nine indictments.

Two hundred stockmen, armed to th teeth, have gone in search of a band of Wyoming cattle "rustlers," who are likewise armed. If the stronghold of the thieves is found the foutlaws will be exterminated, as the ranchers mean business.

The body of a traveling man, named S. N. Spaulding, aged about twenty-two years, was found in the government canal near Portage, Wis. There were seven cuts on the head which were evidently made by a bloody coupling-pin which was found in the vicinity.

The Valparaiso correspondent of the New York Herald is still trying to make it appear that Consul McCreery is very un-popular among the Chilians. The correspondent charges that the consul received $2,000 in connection with a shipment of contraband goods.

Yesterday the last remnants of the National Opera Company were scattered to the four winds. An auction sale of the stock was held in New York and brought a total of $922. Mrs. F. B. Thurber, manager of the late company, holds a mortgage of about $40,000 on the property. Mrs. Eastry and six-year-old daughter were burned to death at Wilkesbarre, Pa., yesterday. The mother was trying to rescue her child, with the aid of a fireman, when a quantity of gunpowder in the build-ing exploded and wrecked the room they were in. The fireman escaped. Armed with a pistol and shotgun Monroe Guion and James Ketchum fought a duel, at Creve Cour Lake, Mo. At the second shot Guion fell, with a load of buck-shot in his abdomen. Ketchum's seconds said the honor of their principal was satisfied, and the wounded man was taken home. One of the closing acts of the Mississippi Legislature was to place the following section in the chapter of crimes in the new Constitution: "Any news-dealer who shall offer for sale any newspaper or publication containing a lottery advertisement shall be guitty of a misdemeanor, subject to a fine and imprisonment." Several of the banks in New York, and especially those up town, who do a large business in paying checks over the counter, are complaining of the scarcity of small bills, especially of ones, twos and fives. Some of the banks have found it impossible to get from the treasury more than one-fifth of the amount asked for. John C. Campbell, the book-keeper of the big lumber firm of Woods, Jenks & Co., of Dieveland, O., was arrested on Friday for ambezzing $5,300 from his employers. He made a full confession and said he had been taking the money in small sums for eight years to make good losses at the gambling sable. He is thirty years old, married and of a good family.

THE STORM'S DEADLY WORK

Remarkable Features of the Tornado That Laid Part of Kansas in Ruins.

The Fate of Mrs. Eggers and Child-Babe Decapitated-Couple Denuded of Their Clothes-Fifty Lives Lost.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 2 .- Not until today was telegraph communication restored with that district of southern Kansas which was visited Thursday by a terrible cyclone and yesterday by a terrific tornado. From present indications it is believed that not less than fifty deaths will be the result of the storm's havoc.

The details of incidents of the disaster at various points present many strange and some horrible features. One strange, and, at the same time, horrible fate was that which overtook the family of Albert Eggers, who lived on a farm near Wamego. family had retired for the night when the storm struck the house. The force of the storm first moved the house from its foundation and dashed it to pieces on the ground over one hundred feet from its original position, and then carried away the debris so that it was nearly impossible to tell where its destruction had taken place. Portions of the house have been found at distances as far as a mile from its foundation and pieces of the furniture are scattered all about the place. One chair but slightly damaged was found nearly half a mile distant from the location of the house. Mr. Eggers was the only member of the family of four who escaped death. Mrs. Eggers, who had been sleeping with her two children, was found nearly a quarter of a mile from the location. Clasped in her arms was her six-months-old babe. Both had apparently been dashed to death on the ground, and were crushed and mangled in a horrible manner. There was scarcely an unbroken bone in either body. The faces of both presented the appearance of having been powder-burned. Examination showed that the force of the wind had driven into their faces and under the skin small particles of sand and dust. Mr. Eggers was found this morning after the storm wandering aimlessly about his farm, oblivious of the injuries that he had sustained. His right arm was broken and he was badly bruised. He was made as comfortable as possible by those who escaped injury, and soon recovered consciousness. When told, however, of the fate of his wife and children his mind wandered and finally gave way under the terrible intelligence. It is not believed that he can recover, and even if he does his reason will

STRIPPED OFF THEIR CLOTHES. James Taylor's house is near that of Mr. Eggers. He had been but recently mar ried. The storm destroyed his home and carried himself and wife a rod from it. The terrible force of the wind stripped them of every vestige of their night clothes. They were obliged to gather from the fields what remained of their scattered clothing and make the best of it. Their neighbors were nearly as destitute as themselves, and every store in town had been destroyed. Taylor could find no trousers until to-day. and he was obliged to do as best he could with one of his wife's skirts. At Towarda the baby of James Blake was one of the victims. It met death in a terrible manner. Its body was not found until Friday noon, and the searchers were horrified to see that it was without a head. It had been decapitated, but how has not been determined. The head was found fully one hundred yards from the body. Guillotine never made a neater decapitation. Surgeons who are attending the wounded said that the best master of the scalpel in the world could not have surpassed the wind's operation. In the temporary morgue the head and body were laid together and a narrow ribbon tied about the baby's throat would have entirely concealed the fatal wound. The parents of the infant were both among the very seriously wounded. Near Strong City James Gordon, an old recluse, a farmer, lived alone. His house was a two-roomed but. The front room served as a bed-chamber. The cyclone lifted this shell of the building from the ground, leaving the floors still firm upon the foundation, with the bed standing in its usual position and its occupant unburt. When Gordon realized what had happened he departed from his usual habit and sought the company of his neighbors.

It is believed that most of the worst disasters have been reported, but there are still to be heard from New Kiowa and Degraf, and the country districts where the storm created greater havoc. Many isolated fatalities will doubtless come to light within the next few days, swelling the death list to a considerable extent.

NAMES OF THE KNOWN DEAD.

The list of the known dead, including those who have died from their injuries, is: At Towanda-Dr. John D. Godfrey, aged seventy-eight, retired physician; Herschell seventy-eight, retired physician; Herschell Culp, aged twenty-one, farmer's son; John Bailey, aged twenty-one, railroad laborer; John Blake, aged forty-seven, merchant; George Blake, aged six, latter's son; Miss Annie Robbins, aged thirty-five, postmistress; Earl Karr, aged eleven; C. L. Westcate, aged thirty-two; infant of James

At Augusta-Albert Barnes, aged twenty-three, farmer; infant child of Wm. Rhoades; Harmon Hoskins, aged thirty. farmer; infant son of the latter; Mrs. Herbert Abbott.

Near Wellington-Mrs. Jos. Showalters and infant child; Wm. Little and his four Near Wamego-Mrs. Albert Eggers and two children, aged three and five years respectively; Joseph Johnson, a laborer on the Eggers farm; Charles Taylor, Mrs. Charles Taylor and her child.

At South Haven—Benjamin H. Maple and

James H. Maple, his son.

At Wichita—Patrick Martin, farmer. At Eureka—Mary Rise. At Strong City—John G. Losser, Mrs. John Losser and infant child.

In Missouri there were only two fatalities, so far as known, as follows: At Moberly, Mrs. Joseph Connelly, and at St. Joseph, the seven-year-old daughter of Rev. E. B. Bushnell. These deaths resulted from injuries during yesterday's gale, both victims being struck and killed by flying missiles hurled by the wind.

Scores of persons were injured throughout the storm-swept district, many of whom will die, Hundreds of buildings were demolished, and great damage to live stock, trees and fencing. The property loss will be very large.

Dispatches from Texas tell of loss of life and damage to property near Santa Ana and Rockport. Three persons were killed or mortally wounded and twenty severely

In lowa several persons were struck by flying timbers, and one killed and five seriously injured.

Eight Dead at Chicago. CHICAGO, April 2.- To-day the people reported last night as dangerously injured in the terrible disaster at Halstead and Pierce streets, caused by the collapse of a new seven-story building in a giant whirlwind, appeared to have a fair chance of recovery. Eight is the total number of those dead. It is charged that the collapsed building was four stories higher than it should have been. The permit issued by the city authorities to the owner, Samuel Young, was for a three-story structure. The walls overthrown with such fearful results had been put to a height of seven stories.

building was fully up to the municipal requirements. Just before 3 o'clock this afternoon the first of the corpses buried under the ruins was reached. The body was so frightfully crushed that identification was well-nigh impossible. The re-

Nearly two hours elapsed after its discovery before the debris was sufficiently removed to allow the body of Miss Walsh to be carried out of the ruins. Her left arm was crushed to a pulp, and her face was swollen and distigured. Just before her body was removed, the firemen, who had been digging in the kitchen, discovered the body of Mrs. Gowan. She was clad only in a wrapper, and had evidently just arisen from her sick-bed, and was endeavoring to escape when the crash came. Her breust was fearfully bruised and the lividity of her features indicated that she died from asphyxiation. In about half an hour, and near the place where Mrs. Gowan's body was found, the remains of Samuel Erisdale were found. He had evidently been caught under the heaviest part of the wall. His head was crushed almost flat and his left arm reduced to a jelly. Almost touching Erisdale's body, on the left, was found the body of Willie Gowan. He was badly crushed, but the appearance of his features indicated that he was smothered to death. As soon as taken from the ruins the bodies were removed to a morgue, and were later viewed by the coroner's jury. After an examination of the bodies the jury adjourned until next Friday, when witnesses will be heard,

RATE WAR AVERTED.

The C. & N. Yields to the Pressure of Its Competitors in Blind Passenger Pool. CHICAGO, April 2.-Trouble has been averted in the Northwestern blind passent ger pool. Yielding to the pressure brought to bear upon it by one and all of its competitors, the Chicago & Northwestern road has finally consented to forege, for the present at least, its intention of increasing the speed of its through trains and thereby reducing the time by half an hour between here and St. Paul. It became evident to the Northwestern that it could not carry out this plan without provoking rival lines to retaliatory measures, thereby causing a disturbance in rates and a consequent loss of revenue in a territory where it is of the greatest importance that harmony should be preserved. It has, therefore, been agreed that the present time schedule western will add to its passenger service an additional daylight train in both directions and change the time of arrival and departure of other trains, these changes to take effect April 10.

Lake and Rail Divisions.

CHICAGO, April 2.—Chairman Midgley, of the Western Freight Association, will at once confer with the managers of the lake lines with a view to obtaining their assent to the resolution adopted at the special meeting, last Tuesday, concerning divisions on through traffic. The resolution provides that rates on lake-and-rail business from East St. Louis to New York may be made by adding to the lake-and-rail rates from Chicago to New York the following amounts per one hundred pounds: First class, 12 cents; second, 1012; third, 8; fourth, 512; tifth, 5; sixth, 5. The usual differentials are to apply from other points and the rates so ascertained are to govern from upper Mississippi-river crossings on traffic from points west thereof, the whole to take effect April 5.

Business Embarrassments.

PHILADELPHIA, April 2.—Shortly before noon to-day State Bank Examiner Krumbhaar suspended the business of the Mutual Banking, Surety, Trust, and Safe Deposit Company, at No. 1317 Arch street, pending an investigation of its books and accounts. The company's officers refuse information as to the nature of the troubles, but an employe states that it is owing to a conflict between the company's requirements and the State law. The capital of the concern 18 $1,000,000, of which it is said $100,000 has been paid in, and a second $100,000 called. The president is D. P. Pancoast, M. D.

CLEVELAND, O., April 2.-Rumors that the failure of the Painesville bank had weakened the Citizens' Savings Bank at Akron, O., caused a run on the latter institution last night and this morning. The depositors made a rush for their money and after $5,200 had been paid out, the bank decided to suspend payment on interest-bearing deposits for thirty days. The bank is said to be perfectly sound.

Boston, April 2.-Peter Anthony & Son, manufacturers of silk embroideries, No. 88 Lincoln street, and factory at West Roxbury, have assigned to H. W. Sawyer, of Cambridge, and J. R. Nutter, of Boston. Liabilities, $150,000.

NEW YORK, April 2.- The schedules of William E. Webster, four commission merchant, show liabilities, $160,782; nominal assests, $159,390; actual assets, $151,118.

Lifted 3,242 Pounds.

LYNN, Mass., April 2.- Joseph M. Kennedy broke the record for heavy-weight lifting in harness this evening, lifting 3.242 pounds, or three pounds more than the old record of 3,239, made in New York city, Dec. 2, 1866, by D. W. B. Curtis.

ON A CHARGE OF ARSON.

Fred Krueger Arrested for Setting Fire to Bernd's Wagon-Shop.

Fred Krueger, a German, was arrested by Sergeant Hyland last night to answer a charge of arson. The crime was committed about 11 o'clock, at Bernd Brothers' wagonshop, corner of Morris and Maple streets. The fire was plainly of incendiary origin. but was extinguished with a loss within $200. Chief Webster found a broken window-pane, through which a hand had been extended and the door opened. The fire-bug had attempted to start the tire against the wall on the floor, but, after blazing eighteen inches high, it went out, leaving the tell-tale marks of criminal intent. The effort was then repeated by firing a lot of excelsior on the second floor, in the paint-shop. This was filled with unfinished work, which suffered more from the blistering heat than from contact with flame. Bernd Brothers do an extensive repair business, and the vehicles of several business men were more or less damaged. George Catterson's buggy was injured on one side.

The evidence against Krueger is not conclusive but is damaging. He was pointed out to the sergeant and patrolmen Maronet and Hoover by a lot of children as the man who started the fire. The arrest was made as the crowd was watching the firemen clear away their hose. Krueger denies any hand in the incendiarism. He related to a Journal reporter last night that he had been working for the firm for two weeks, but on a previous occasion had been in its employ for a year as a painter. Instead of going to his home, on Church-man's pike, when he quit work, he went to a saloon on Virginia avenue and remained there until after 10 o'clock. He then went to the house of Paniel Bernd, one of the brothers in the firm, who was celebrating with friends his twentyfifth wedding anniversary. The employes had all been invited, and liquid refreshments were free as water. Krueger, however, did not enter the house, in spite of the open hospitality. While standing on the outside, listening to the music, he says he saw a man come running from the shop, which is next door, crying that it was on fire. The fellow continued running and disappeared. He says he was a painter and thought he would know the man again if he were to see him. Krueger had been much under the influence of liquor when arrested, but the fright had a sobering effect. He has a wife and three children. and is thirty-five years of age. His home is in the neighborhood of the road-house which was destroyed by an incendiary fire Thursday morning.

Order of Eastern Star.

The annual meeting of the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star of Indiana will commence in this city April 27. The Central Traffic Association has agreed to furnish reduced rates. The representatives and members of the Grand Chapter are requested to file their railroad certificates with the grand secretary the first day of the session. These certificates will be filled up and signed by the grand secretary Via the Pennsylvania Line from Indian-apolis.

In behalf of the owner, it is asserted, how-ever, that, notwithstanding the discrepan-then be stamped by the special agent of the Central Traffic Association.

WILL MAKE A LEGAL TEST.

Attorney Wishard Claims the Board Cannot Change from Asphalt to Brick.

The controversy over the Fletcher-avenue improvement is not yet settled, and may possibly get into the courts. The Board of Public Works first ordered the street improved with asphalt, and there was a two-thirds remonstrance. A few days ago the board changed its order and had a resolution prepared calling for a brick pavement. Attorney Wishard, who was called in by Councilman Olsen, claims that the Board of Public Works has not the authority to change its order, and says if bids are asked for on a brick pavement he will test the legality of the resolution. A portion of Section 72 of the city charter relating to street improvements reads:

if such original resolution be confirmed or medified it shall be final and conclusive on all persons unless within ten days thereafter two-thirds of all the resident freeholders upon such street or alley remonstrate against such improvement. In case of such remonstrance the improvement shall not take place unless specifically ordered by an ordinance within sixty days thereafter passed by a two-thirds vote of the Council and approved by the Mayor.

The board's claim is that it can order the improvement of a street without any one petitioning therefor, and that when it changed its order from asphalt to brick it adopted a new resolution against which property-owners have the right to remonstrate the same as they did against asphalt. It is understood to be the board's position that if the controversy is extended further that the street will not be improved at all this year.

THE CARLETON COMPANY.

Several Late Changes Made-Two Young Ladies of This City Join the Chorus.

The Carleton Opera Company closed its half-week's engagement at the Grand last evening, and leaves this morning for Cincinnati, where it opens to-night for a week at Henck's. Several changes have been effected in the make-up of the company, beginning with to-day. Mr. F. Huntley, the tenor, has been released, and Mr. Carleton will take his place, giving the part of Romadoon, which he has been playing, to a new man, who will soon be added to the forces. Charles Drew, the well-known comedian, is now on his way east from San Francisco to join the troupe, and as soon as the annual summer engagement of three months opens at Albaugh's Theater in Washington Lillie Post will also enlist. J. K. Murray and his wife, Clara Lane, who were with the company when it played here in December, were released by Mr. Carleton in Louisville last week.

Grace Platt and Nellie McPherson, two girls of this city, with good voices, joined the company last night and will appear in the chorus to-night in Cincinnati. Mr. Caleton, like all other theatrical men, deplores the ravages of the lent n season on the box-office receipts. He reports business good in the West, where Lent is not as rigidly observed as in the East, but says that the further he gets toward the rising sun the smaller grows the pile of greenbacks in the treasurer's

PRACTICE IN UNIFORMS.

The Ball Club Is Getting Down to Work-The Pennant in Sight.

The ball team spent yesterday afternoon at the ball park practicing batting, throwing and chasing flies and grounders. They appeared in their new suits for the first time, and they are fine. The flannel is of the very best material, and the black trimmings give a very attractive effect to them. About half a thousand fans were out to see the boys and give them encouragement by their cordial applause of good plays made. The team shows up in magnificent shape in the practice, and inasmuch as all the clubs of the league are starting in the season with little or no practice, there is no reason why the home club should not set the pace and keep it up until the great white pennant floats proudly in the breeze above the grand-stand. The diamond will be finished by Tuesday. and it alone is worth a trip to the park, for there is nothing this side of Switzerland that rivals it for scenic beauty. The Light Contract.

The Board of Public Works expects to have the electric-light contract signed and ready for introduction in the Council tomorrow evening. President Caven has returned from Cleveland with the contract. There will be some opposition to the contract in the Council, but it will no doubt be confirmed.

Spiritualists Give an Entertainment.

The Spiritualists' Society gave an entertainment last night in Lorraine Hall, which was well attended. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music and recitations. A fine oil painting was disposed of by raffle. After the programme, refreshments of ice-cream and cake were

A Horse Sale.

The second combination horse sale by T. F. Carmony will occur at the stockyards this week, beginning Tuesday and lasting four days. There are 215 horses to be disposed of, with Col. R. E. Edmonson, of Lexington, doing the crying. The cata-logue contains a great many finely bred horses.

Mr. Benson Will Lecture.

Luther Benson was seen last evening and he is in greatly improved health, and says he will positively lecture in Tomlinson Hall to-day, at 3 o'clock, The doors open at 2 o'clock.

The Stranger Dead.

Special to the Indian apolis Journal. RICHMOND, Ind., April 2.- Joseph Herring, a young Bohemian, who was unable to speak a word of English, was found, last Monday, in a demented condition, at the corner of Eighth and Main streets. He was taken to St. Stephen's Hospital, where the physician in charge said he was suffer-ing from cerebro spinal meningitis. He grew rapidly worse and died this morning. He had on his person a copy of the by-laws of a labor union at Jeanetteville, Pa., and a receipt for payment of dues. The union was notified.

The proprietors of Dr. Sage's Remedy try to prove it to you. They are sure enough of it—a record of 25 years, with thousands of the most hopeless cases, has satisfied them—but how can they prove it to you? There's no better way than with money. So they say this, and they mean it: "if we can't cure your Catarrh, no matter what your case is, we'll pay you $500 in cash. There's a chance that you can't be cured, but it's so small that we're willing to take it." What more can they say or do to convince

THE CAPRI GIRL.

How Capri Women Are So Healthy.

The women of Capri are the healthtest in the world. The secret of their wonderful vigor is work, plain diet and constant life in the open air. "Nerves" are unknown. Women of our own country bave injured their nerves by wrong diet and a shut-up, in-door life. Thousands feel just ready to drop from neryous weakness. It is what makes so many nervous, tired, languid, without energy or ambition. They have headache, stomach trouble, kidney and liver complaints, constipated bowels, headache, malaria, paipitation, poor blood, etc., which are caused by weakened nerves and nervous prostration.

The grip, also, has left, as an after-effect, more weakened and shattered nerves and more physical debility and prostration than any other known epidemic. These difficulties are always increased and greatly aggravated in spring, by that spring debility which so weakens and enervates us all. But all these troubles are curable by the great tonic and restorative for women, Dr. Greene's Nervura. A perfect condition of nerve vigor and strength always follows its use, and thus women can secure as strong nerves and vigorous health as those of Capri. No woman should fail to use Dr. Greene's Nerrura in spring if she wishes to keep strong and healthy. Purely vegetable and harmless. Druggists, $1.

"I was suffering from nervousness, caused by female weakness and nervous prostration, I was so nervous and weak I could not go up a common pair of stairs without stopping to rest, and troubled to sleep at night. I took Dr. Greene's Nervura, and have obtained my old elastic step round the house, to the surprise of my friends, After creeping round for two years, hardly able do anything, it has proved a boon to me truly. "MRS. OLIVER WILSON, Northboro, Mass."

Dr. Greene, the successful specialist in curing all forms of nervous and chronic diseases, 35 West Fourteenth street, New York, can be consulted free, personally or by letter. Call or write to him about your case or send for symptom blank to fill out, and a letter fully explaining your disease, giving advice, etc., will be returned free.
